

IDOP Sunday

Persecuted believers often tell us they feel alone. They need the spiritual support of the body of Christ through our prayers. Some have told us they physically felt those prayers during especially difficult times. When we share that other Christians are praying for them, they often weep.

Pray they will not feel alone or forgotten (Matthew 28:20).

Pray that God would knit your heart to theirs (1 Corinthians 12:26).

Praise God that those who are persecuted will have great reward (Luke 6:22-23).

Pray for faithful perseverance (Hebrews 10:32-36).

Pray believers will be prepared for persecution (1 John 3:13).

Pray that Christians undergoing persecution will remember what they have learned so they stay faithful (2 Timothy 3:12-14).

Praise God for his strength for those enduring persecution (2 Corinthians 12:10).

Pray for God to give believers the right response when questioned about their faith (1 Pet. 3:15).

Pray that the faith of believers would witness to their persecutors (Luke 6:27-31).

Pray persecuted believers will know Jesus ultimately holds the victory (John 16:33).
