

Will You Pray For the Persecuted?

And if one body-part is suffering, all the body-parts are suffering with it. If one body-part is being glorified, all the body-parts are rejoicing with it. 1 Corinthians 12:26

- Severe persecution of Christians with grave consequences.
- Persecution of Christians with substantial regional violations.
- Full freedom or only slightly restricted freedom of religion. Assault of Christians is very sporadic.

The Many Faces of Persecution

Religious Discrimination Converting to Christianity is often illegal resulting in ostracism, discrimination, and/or physical persecution.

Employment Discrimination Christians lose jobs, are denied education, and are rejected or disqualified for advance in professional careers.

Legal Discrimination Christians lose their rights to hereditary titles/benefits. Marriages and parental rights may not be recognized.

Societal Discrimination Christians are hindered in sharing the Gospel, living their faith, and building churches via misinterpreted laws, deliberate lies, fanaticism, and abuse of power by officials or extremist groups.
