

CHINA

TYPE OF PERSECUTION: GOVERNMENTS

SEVERITY OF PERSECUTION: EXTREME

Christians in China live under extensive government oversight, with churches, gatherings, and ministry to young people facing significant restrictions.

Believers risk questioning and loss of opportunity, yet they continue to gather, share Bibles, disciple young people, and creatively share the gospel.

A QUIET MINISTRY

Yue* owns a shoe store where children often stop by. As relationships grow, she carefully shares the story of Jesus with them. After one child took a gospel brochure home, the child's mother reported Yue. Police interrogated her and forced her to sign a statement promising not to teach children about Jesus again. Yue was not intimidated. She continues ministering, but much more carefully, knowing another arrest could place her on a blacklist.

HOW YOU CAN HELP?

PROVIDE GOD'S WORD Help place Bibles into the hands of young people and families who are eager to read Scripture.

REACH YOUNG PEOPLE Help children and teenagers attend camps and training where they can grow in faith and learn how to share the gospel.

EQUIP LOCAL LEADERS Help provide training, travel, and ministry resources for believers serving churches across the country.
