

IRAN

TYPE OF PERSECUTION: GOVERNMENTS

SEVERITY OF PERSECUTION: EXTREME

Following Jesus openly in Iran can bring surveillance, interrogation, imprisonment, and loss of opportunity. House churches meet quietly, Christian leaders face intense pressure, and Bibles are carefully shared. Yet despite these restrictions, a remarkable and growing Church continues to follow Jesus.

CARRYING GOD'S WORD

Mortada* and his wife crossed the border into Iran carrying Persian Bibles. If authorities discovered them, they risked arrest. In a shop, Mortada met a Muslim man and mentioned Jesus. When he asked if the man would read a New Testament, the answer came immediately: yes. Mortada had one waiting in the car. Churches may be closed and activity restricted, but people are searching for Jesus. Believers continue sharing and gathering quietly as the Church grows.

HOW YOU CAN HELP?

PROVIDE BIBLES Help get Persian Bibles and discipleship resources into the hands of believers and people searching for Jesus.

EQUIP LEADERS Help train Christian leaders and provide tools for house churches as they disciple a growing underground Church.

CARE FOR BELIEVERS Assistance, legal advocacy, and practical support for Christians who have faced imprisonment, persecution, or loss of income.
