

PAKISTAN

TYPE OF PERSECUTION: GOVERNMENTS

SEVERITY OF PERSECUTION: EXTREME

Christians in Pakistan face discrimination, blasphemy accusations, violence, and deep poverty. Some families remain trapped in generations of bonded labor, while women and girls face particular danger. Through local partners and churches, believers are finding practical help, freedom, and hope.

TRAPPED BY DEBT

After her marriage ended, Mariam* was left with her former husband's debts. Unable to repay them, she became trapped in bonded labor. Like many Christian families working in Pakistan's brick kilns, debt can control nearly every part of life and continue growing from one generation to the next. Through ICR's local partner, families are being redeemed from their debts and helped to begin again. More than 240 families have already been freed.

HOW YOU CAN HELP?

FREE A FAMILY Help redeem a Christian family from brick kiln debt. You can free one family and help them reestablish their lives.

SUPPORT A PERSECUTED FAMILY Help provide rent, food, school fees, and other essentials when a family's main breadwinner is imprisoned.

PROVIDE EDUCATION Help Christian children receive an education and break the cycle of poverty and exploitation.
